

Evon Rios Joins Yates & Associates Insurance Services

Tustin, California... Jim Yates, President and CEO of Yates & Associates Insurance Services, Inc. announced that Ms. Evon Rios has recently joined Yates & Associates. She will be responsible for leading the Professional Liability Underwriting Team and will report directly to Alex Zardeneta, Vice President of Marketing and Underwriting.

About Evon Rios

Evon began her insurance career over 20 years ago as a clerk working at a large wholesale operation in Los Angeles, California and continued to perfect her skills specific to the Professional Liability/Financial Services arena. Most recently she was at Partners Specialty Group, and prior to that she was with Burns & Wilcox. Evon is an active member of PLUS (Professional Liability Underwriting Society) and is currently completing the requirements to earn her RPLU designation.

Jim Yates explained “Evon’s extensive experience working both on the retail and wholesale sides brings a thorough knowledge of all of the Professional Liability products lines to our California agents. She can assist them with understanding and writing more professional liability risks.”

When asked why she decided to join Yates & Associates, Evon said “Yates & Associates is an established E&S firm that provides exemplary services and support to both clients and employees.” She went on to say that “being part of such a dynamic firm is both exciting and rewarding.”

In her spare time, Evon enjoys outdoor activities with her family and friends.
